PREAMBLE

WHEREAS:

A. The First Nations assert that: Hul’qumi’num Aboriginal rights, title and other interests exist in Hul’qumi’num territory; that the lands, waters, and resources belonging to Hul’qumi’num people are subject to the collective and individual rights and jurisdictions of the First Nations; and Hul’qumi’num territory has never been ceded, sold, or surrendered.

D. The Parties recognize that this is an interim Agreement which preserves the First Nations’ interests pending claims resolution in relation to GINPR and fosters a relationship between the parties that makes possible negotiations, which is the preferred process for achieving ultimate reconciliation.

E. Canada and the Hul’qumi’num Treaty Group desire to mutually agree on a cooperative and consultative relationship in the spirit of the Chapter of the “Parks and Protected Areas – Federal Parks” chapter of the draft Agreement in Principle, dated September 17, 2003, without prejudice to treaty negotiations, and desire to implement that process prior to the completion of the Side Agreement;

F. The Supreme Court of Canada has since provided guidance through the decisions *Haida Nation v. British Columbia (Minister of Forests)*¹ and *Taku River Tlingit First Nation v. British Columbia (Project Assessment Director)*² on a general framework for government and First Nations related to the duty to consult and accommodate before Aboriginal rights or title have been established;

G. The Parties wish to develop a meaningful process of consultation that has flexibility so that the level of consultation will be appropriate to the circumstances and will be a guide for both Parties to meet any legal duties that flow from the principles set out by the Supreme Court of Canada; and

PURPOSE

This Agreement sets out the interim terms by which the Parties will continue to develop and clarify the role for the First Nations in the cooperative planning and management of Gulf Islands National Park Reserve and establish a process for consultation where the conduct contemplated by Canada in planning and management could adversely affect or infringe a potential aboriginal right or title of the First Nations.

PRINCIPLES

The following principles are intended to provide guidance to the Parties for implementation of this Agreement. The last three principles provide a framework to the Parties of some of the common law principles which guide this Agreement. The principles under this heading are not intended to be contractual covenants.

The Parties share a belief that management of Gulf Islands National Park Reserve will be more successful if they have mechanisms to interact with each other, to learn from each other, and to share information and knowledge.

The Parties share a belief that Hul’qumi’num people are valuable sources of knowledge and experience, and that any consultative process needs to include mechanisms for interaction with these individuals.

Consultation must be in good faith, and with the intention of substantially addressing the concerns of the Aboriginal peoples whose potential aboriginal rights and title are at issue. Good faith is required on both sides at all stages.

The Parties acknowledge that the scope and content of consultation will vary with circumstances. Consultation may include a process to involve the Chiefs and Council and the communities of the HTG Member First Nations. This could also include the contracting of technical experts to assist the Committee members, conducting impact and benefit studies, providing additional funding, doing issue specific research, and disseminating findings in a timely manner to allow for the provision of feedback from the First Nations.

The Supreme Court of Canada confirmed that where there is a duty to consult there may be a requirement to accommodate. Accommodation was defined by the Courts as “seeking compromise in an attempt to harmonize conflicting interests and move further down the path of reconciliation”. The court clarified that it may require “taking steps to avoid irreparable harm or minimize the effects of infringement.”
COORDINATOR & COMMITTEE

1. The Parties agree to provide available information to each other, subject to federal law and confidentiality restrictions of HTG and the First Nations, to facilitate the processes under this Agreement.

2. The Parties agree that in order to assist with the processes under this Agreement, one person will be appointed by the HTG, in addition to their representatives, to coordinate participation of the HTG representatives. (the “Coordinator”)

3. The HTG will determine who will fill the Coordinator position. This determination will occur following discussion with Canada.

4. Duties of the coordinator will be included in this Agreement as Appendix 3.

5. A committee will be formed, (the “Committee”), consisting of the following representatives:

   a) One representative from each of the member First Nations of the HTG, for a total of six;
   b) One Elder, appointed by the HTG Chiefs to represent cultural expertise at the Committee;
   c) The HTG Coordinator;
   d) One representative of Canada, as determined by the Superintendent, and during any scheduled business of the committee either the Superintendent or his designate, or both, will be present;
   e) Other participants as agreed by the Committee; and
   f) One senior staff representative from HTG.

Representative

6. Each Party will determine their own representatives for the Committee. Each Party acknowledges the benefits of having consistent representation, and will endeavor to have representatives prepared in advance for meetings.

Chief & Council Opportunity for Submission

7. For greater certainty, if any of the Chiefs and Councils do not support the Direction(s), in whole or in part, made pursuant to clause 27 by the First Nation representative they appointed, the Chief and Council may put this in writing to the Superintendent prior to the decision being made. When the Superintendent makes a final decision pursuant to clause 30, the Superintendent will also consider the submission of the Chief and Council of the First Nation. For greater certainty, this submission will be considered by the Superintendent as adding to, or where there is a conflict with the Direction provided, take the place of, the substantive contribution of that First Nations representative to the Direction.

Committee Conduct

8. The Parties agree that either Party may bring other persons to meetings of the Committee as they choose for purposes of enhancing that Party's participation.

9. Canada will maintain records of all business conducted, including minutes and material presented at meetings. The Coordinator, on behalf of the First Nations, will be responsible for keeping copies of all material presented and copies of meeting minutes.

10. Accessibility by other than Committee members to the records of the Committee will be as described in Appendix 1, the Information Sharing Protocol.

11. The Committee will attempt to meet monthly or as often as is necessary.

12. The Committee will develop as required its own set of operating procedures. These procedures will be agreed to on a consensus basis, and will be made available to the general public, including the First Nations as provided in Appendix 4.

TOPICS FOR ADVICE AND CONSIDERATION OF ADVICE

13. The Committee will be the interim venue through which the Committee, based on a consensus approach, will provide advice to the Superintendent on the following planning and management matters (Level I topics) as they may apply within Gulf Islands National Park Reserve, including:

   a) signage;
   b) identification, development, interpretation and presentation of materials relating to cultural and natural heritage;

14. Where any Party, including any individual First Nation representative of the Committee, considers that a Level I topic requires consultation the topic will be deemed to be a Level II topic.

15. The Parties agree that a quorum for a meeting of the Committee for Level I topics will consist of at least one representative from Canada, and at least three First Nations representatives as well as the Coordinator.

TOPICS AND PROCESS FOR CONSULTATION AND CONSIDERATION OF DIRECTIONS

Topics for Consultation

16. The Chiefs and Council by Band Resolutions have designated the representatives and their alternatives on the Committee from the First Nations to have the authority to represent their First Nation for the purposes of consultation on the following matters (Level II topics):

   a) Management of resource harvesting, including harvesting plans;
   b) Management of archaeological, cultural, spiritual or historic sites of significance to the Hul’qumi’num Mustimuhw;
   c) Management of discovered ancient human remains;
   d) Deletions from GINPR;
   e) Additions to GINPR, including criteria for strategic direction on the nature and location of lands for additions;
   f) Interim Management Guidelines and Park Management Plans; and
   g) Environmental Assessments which have the potential to consider acknowledged First Nations interests.

17. The Committee is not a forum for resolving Aboriginal title questions, nor is it a forum for treaty negotiations. If the Committee identifies that a Level II Topic may have implications for matters related to Aboriginal title or matters under treaty negotiation, the First Nation representatives of the Committee will confer with the Chiefs and Councils and the HTG Chief Negotiator as to what aspects of the matters the Committee should or should not deal with.
Engagement of Communities and Chiefs and Councils

18. The Committee will endeavor to perform adequate engagement of the Hul’qumi’num Mustimuhw, and gather or generate appropriate information into the potential impacts and benefits during any consultation by Canada.

19. The Committee will develop a process to inform the Chiefs and Councils and the communities of the First Nations of the outcomes of consultation on Level II topics. This may include such things as an annual public meeting or mail outs or a website. Canada recognizes that this communication is an important part of the Consultation process and as such will be considered in the funding arrangements provided for in Appendix 2.

Process for Consultation and Consideration of Directions

20. The Parties agree that a quorum for a meeting of the Committee for Level II Topics will consist of at least one representative from Canada, and at least four of the First Nation representatives as well as the Coordinator.

21. If one of the representatives is not present at a meeting, he or she may make their opinion on a matter under consultation known at a future meeting of the Committee.

22. The Parties expect the Committee members to strive to reach consensus on:

   (i) what Content and Scope of consultation is required when considering a Level II topic. Content and Scope includes defining the issue to be consulted on and how to carry out consultation on that issue so that consultation is meaningful and appropriate to the circumstances. (the “Content and Scope”); and

   (ii) the Substance of the Topic that is under consultation. The Substance of the Topic includes the substantive dialogue regarding the issue under consultation. (the “Substance of the Topic”).

23. Where the Committee cannot reach consensus on the Content and Scope of consultation that is required, or on the Substance of the Topic under consultation, the Committee may engage a facilitator to assist the Committee to reach consensus.

24. If consensus on the Content and Scope of consultation, or on the Substance of the Topic of consultation still can not be reached, the Committee will report this to the Parties and suggest possible avenues for resolution such as getting guidance from the Superintendent and the Chiefs and Councils or carrying out a broader consultation process in the community.

25. If the Parties agree on an avenue for resolution, they will take any additional steps that they agree are necessary so that there has been a meaningful process of consultation.

26. For greater certainty, any representative of Canada does not have to be included in a Direction to be sent to the Superintendent from the First Nation representatives on the Committee, and the First Nation representatives on the Committee need not have consensus on a Direction provided.

27. After taking any steps pursuant to clauses 23 to 26, the First Nation representatives on the Committee may make their formal submissions known to the Superintendent through providing Direction. Direction may be given verbally or in written form. Prior to undertaking a consultation the Committee will explicitly determine whether the Direction will be provided to the Superintendent in written or verbal form.

28. Prior to making her or his decision on a Direction from the First Nation representatives on the Committee, she or he will provide written reasons to the Committee, the Chiefs and Councils and the HTG.

29. After receiving the Superintendent’s written reasons, the Committee may request that the Superintendent meet with the Committee, and a facilitator if appropriate, to attempt to reconcile outstanding interests. The Superintendent will make all reasonable efforts to meet with the Committee if requested by the Committee.

30. After such a meeting, if any, occurs, and after the full and fair consideration of the interests being expressed by the First Nations and any implications of a decision on the exercise or practice of asserted Aboriginal rights, the Parties recognize that the Superintendent may make his or her final decision.

31. The Parties acknowledge that the Chiefs and Councils, the First Nations or individual First Nation community members may choose to raise an issue with Canada where they feel that scope and content consultation has not been adequate, or that the Superintendent has not adequately accommodated their interests.
Review of Consultation Process

32. The Committee can make a recommendation to the Parties and HTG, at any time, on how the processes for consultation under this Agreement can be improved.

33. Annually, the Parties will identify and implement an appropriate mechanism to evaluate the effectiveness of the consultation processes under this Agreement.

GENERAL

34. The Parties acknowledge that there may be rare occasions such as emergencies relating to conservation, public health, or public safety that may require the Superintendent to take immediate actions without following the processes for consultation or advice set out in this Agreement. If such an action is taken, the Superintendent will inform the Committee as soon as possible.

35. This Agreement is not intended to be a treaty or land claims agreement, and is not intended to recognize and affirm Aboriginal or treaty rights, within the meaning of section 25 or 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982. This Agreement does not abrogate or derogate, acknowledge or deny any Aboriginal right of the First Nations. This Agreement does not affect any rights of any other First Nation.

36. Nothing in this Agreement shall limit in any manner the rights, jurisdiction, authority, obligations or responsibilities of either Party or their representatives. It is not intended to alter or affect the existing authorities of Canada or the First Nations.

37. This Agreement and the negotiations leading to its creation and its implementation are without prejudice to any Party in any future negotiations.

38. This Agreement, and any consultation undertaken pursuant to it, is not a recognition or acknowledgement of the likelihood of the existence of any Aboriginal right or title, nor an acknowledgement or admission by HTG or the First Nations that Canada has fulfilled any legal duties to consult or accommodate.

39. The Parties acknowledge that implementation of this Agreement may or may not fulfill any legal duties to consult or accommodate.
40. The Committee will not act as the consultative body for any issues dealing with any new protected areas that are administered under Parks Canada jurisdiction.

41. This Agreement will be renewed annually in accordance with clause 42 or until such time as the Side Agreement is completed. Upon completion, the Side Agreement will set out the process for a role for the First Nations in the planning and management of Gulf Islands National Park Reserve.

42. To renew this Agreement annually the First Nation representative will initial the Agreement, unless additional steps are otherwise required by their Chief and Council. Should any Chief and Council require additional steps for the renewal, such as the passing of a new Band Council Resolution, these steps will be respected. If such additional steps are required the Agreement will continue to be in effect until such additional steps have taken place.

43. Any Party may cancel this Agreement at any time with written notice.

44. This Agreement may be signed in one or more counterparts and by facsimile. Each facsimile will be deemed to be an original for all purposes, and all counterparts taken together will be deemed to constitute one document.

45. The headings and subheading appearing within the body of this Agreement have been inserted as a matter of convenience and for reference only and in no way define, limit, or enlarge the scope or meaning of this Agreement or any provision hereof.
